Executive Summary

Improving the health and well-being of women, children and adolescents is the greatest collective endeavour of our time. We live in a world of gross inequality and injustice, but also of unprecedented progress. Since 1990, maternal mortality – indicating deaths of women during pregnancy and childbirth – has fallen by 44%, and the death rate for children under age 5 has fallen by 53%. This progress has been achieved largely through the power of partnerships. PMNCH has worked since its inception in 2005 to forge and strengthen these partnerships.

PMNCH's vision is that of the Every Woman Every Child (EWEC) Global Strategy for Women's, Children's and Adolescents' Health (Global Strategy): "a world in which every woman, child and adolescent – in stable, fragile and humanitarian settings – realizes their right to physical and mental health and well-being; has social and economic opportunities; and is able to participate fully in shaping prosperous and sustainable societies". Figure E1 illustrates PMNCH's contribution to the EWEC architecture.

PMNCH's mission and additionality is to increase the engagement, alignment and accountability of partners by creating a multistakeholder platform to support successful implementation of the Global Strategy,<sup>2</sup> enabling partners to achieve more together than any individual partner could do alone.

PMNCH is the world's largest alliance for women's, children's and adolescents' health,<sup>3</sup> combining over 1,000 partner organizations across the globe. PMNCH achieves its mission through four functions:

- Analysis: PMNCH synthesizes, disseminates and amplifies vital research and evidence on women's, children's and adolescents' health; this evidence guides policy and programming decisions, and enables the tracking of progress towards national and global goals.
- Alignment: PMNCH uniquely brings together partners from 10 diverse constituencies across 192 countries to pursue a common set of goals with common measures of success.
- Advocacy: PMNCH unifies its membership around clear policy and advocacy goals, working through the constituency structure, board meetings, online consultations and Partners' Forums.
- Accountability: PMNCH tracks commitments and synthesizes progress towards the Global Strategy's "survive, thrive and transform" objectives, including hosting the Independent Accountability Panel, which reports directly to the United Nations Secretary-General's EWEC High-Level Steering Group.

The PMNCH 2018-2020 Business Plan follows the 2016-2018 Business Plan and the 2018 Annual Workplan, and should be read in the context of the PMNCH 2016-2020 Strategic Plan.<sup>4</sup> The Business Plan defines the Partnership's contribution to the 2020 EWEC Partners' Framework goals (Annex 1) and the 2030 EWEC Global Strategy and Sustainable Development Goal targets (Figure E2).

Figure E2: PMNCH strategy and business planning documents and their links to the EWEC Global Strategy and the Sustainable Development Goals

The Business Plan is organized into six workstreams, corresponding to the six focus areas of the 2020 EWEC Partners' Framework (see Annex 1). For each workstream, the Business Plan describes deliverables and multi-year budgets. Table E1 below shows the budget overview: the essential budget is set at US$ 10 million per year, and the comprehensive budget at US$ 15 million per year.

The Business Plan will be delivered with the support of the following approaches and tools:

- PMNCH's partnership-centric approach: supporting partners to implement the PMNCH workstreams structured around context-specific partnership Working Groups.
- Political engagement activities: mobilizing for increased commitments to women's, children's and adolescents' health and better use of existing resources.
- PMNCH strategic alignment with EWEC core partners: continuing to strengthen our complementarity with the EWEC core partners, which include the H6 Agencies and the Global Financing Facility.
- PMNCH digital strategy: connecting partners through the website and accountability portal and linking to social media and other platforms to enhance partner impact.

PMNCH is supported by a small Secretariat hosted by the World Health Organization in Geneva. An independent evaluation of PMNCH and the Independent Accountability Panel will commence in 2019.

1. Introduction

Improving the health and well-being of women, children and adolescents is the greatest collective endeavour of our time. We live in a world of gross inequality and injustice, where 1 in 12 children in sub-Saharan Africa die before their fifth birthday – almost 15 times the average in high-income countries. But we also live in a world of unprecedented progress. Since 1990, maternal mortality – deaths of women during pregnancy and childbirth – has fallen by 44% and the death rate for children under age 5 has fallen by 53%. This progress has been achieved largely through the power of partnerships. PMNCH has worked since its inception in 2005 to forge and strengthen these partnerships. If the focus, breadth or intensity of the partnerships diminish, then so too will progress towards global development goals.

The health and well-being of women, children and adolescents are at the heart of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). They are also the focus of the Every Woman Every Child (EWEC) Global Strategy for Women's, Children's and Adolescents' Health (Global Strategy) and the EWEC Partners' Framework (see Annex 1). The vision of the Global Strategy is “a world in which every woman, child and adolescent – in stable, fragile and humanitarian settings – realizes their right to physical and mental health and well-being; has social and economic opportunities; and is able to participate fully in shaping prosperous and sustainable societies”. This is also PMNCH's vision.

PMNCH's mission is to increase the engagement, alignment and accountability of partners, by creating a multistakeholder platform to support successful implementation of the Global Strategy, enabling partners to achieve more together than any individual partner could do alone.

GOALS	Enable all people to live healthy and long lives and contribute to sustainable development
LIFE PHASES	Pregnancy, childbirth and neonatal → Early and later childhood → Early and later adolescence/early youth → Later youth → Early adulthood → Middle adulthood → Later adulthood
DETERMINANTS	Universal health coverage, primary health care and multisectoral services Other individual, social and environmental factors
FRAMEWORK	Right to the highest attainable standard of health Evidence-based strategies for health and well-being at all ages

Moving from the Millennium Development Goals to the SDGs – from “survive” (reducing mortality) to “survive, thrive and transform” – requires a shift from the continuum of care approach to the life course approach (Figure 1).<sup>2</sup> This requires building on the continuum of care while focusing, not on specific diseases, conditions or age groups, but on the more holistic aim for health and well-being throughout life. It also incorporates a rights framework, including sexual and reproductive rights.<sup>3</sup> Although the life course approach does not preclude a focus on particular moments of vulnerability for women, children and adolescents – such as pregnancy and the time around birth – it reflects more fully the realities of twenty-first century health challenges.

2. PMNCH value proposition

PMNCH is the world's largest alliance for women's, children's and adolescents' health (WCAH), combining over 1,000 partner organizations from 10 diverse constituencies across 192 countries (as at the end of 2018). PMNCH carries out four main functions, all of which are enabled through a variety of platforms:

- Analysis: Through its members and with the support of the Secretariat, PMNCH synthesizes, translates and makes accessible vital research and evidence on WCAH, with a particular focus on high-impact interventions and innovations to drive WCAH outcomes. This evidence is used to guide policy and programming decisions, and to track progress towards global, regional and national goals.
- Alignment: PMNCH uniquely brings together more than 10 different constituencies of partners (see Figure 2) to exchange information, discuss challenges and opportunities, and agree on policy, advocacy and evidence-based priorities for WCAH, within the framework of the EWEC Global Strategy in support of the SDGs and universal health coverage (UHC). No other global platform brings together such diverse partners in such a structured, focused and effective way, generating deep and broad commitment to achieving WCAH global goals.
- Advocacy: PMNCH helps to forge consensus on priority issues for WCAH, working through its constituency structure, Board meetings, online consultations and periodic Partners' Forums to unify its members around clear policy priorities and common advocacy messages. PMNCH provides resources and platforms to equip, connect and amplify the voices of its partners. Amid the many issues and priorities competing for popular and political attention at national and global levels, PMNCH helps sustain focus on women's, children's and adolescents' health and well-being.
- Accountability: PMNCH tracks commitments and synthesizes progress towards achieving the EWEC Global Strategy's "survive, thrive and transform" objectives and their related SDG targets through its members and constituency groups, including a growing focus on collaboration with parliamentarians and the media. Its multi-constituency nature promotes constructive, open and truly inclusive dialogue. PMNCH also supports a panel of experts – the Independent Accountability Panel (IAP) – that reports annually on progress towards the global goals directly to the United Nations Secretary-General's EWEC High-Level Steering Group.

PMNCH's achievements over the past five years include:

- giving voice to over 7,000 organizations worldwide by facilitating consultations on the SDGs for health and the EWEC Global Strategy 2016-2030;
- helping to secure global agreements between the 192 Member States of the United Nations through the United Nations General Assembly and the World Health Assembly (e.g. the SDGs; the Every Newborn Action Plan) and developing broad-based partner initiatives and agreements (e.g. Ending Preventable Maternal Mortality; Nurturing Care for Early Childhood Development Framework);
- securing resolutions in support of women's and children's health by the 140 parliaments of the Inter-Parliamentary Union;
- tracking the progress of US$ 45 billion of commitments from over 650 partners to the EWEC Global Strategy and promoting accountability for their delivery.

No other partnership has the breadth, depth and diversity of PMNCH. From governments to private sector businesses, from health-care professionals to grassroots activists: our work connects the smallest village to the United Nations General Assembly, and vice versa.

3. Business Plan context and structure

The PMNCH 2018-2020 Business Plan follows the PMNCH 2018 Annual Workplan, and sets out how PMNCH will be organized and funded to deliver the PMNCH 2016-2020 Strategic Plan. The Business Plan defines the Partnership's contribution to the 2020 EWEC Partners' Framework goals (see Annex 1) and the 2030 EWEC Global Strategy and SDG targets (Figure 3).

Figure 3. PMNCH strategy and business planning documents and their links to the EWEC Global Strategy and the SDGs

The Business Plan contains four additional sections:

- Theory of Change and Results Framework: identifies the priority objectives to be achieved by the Partnership and its Secretariat in respect of the six workstreams of the EWEC Partners' Framework 2020,<sup>5</sup> and how they support the overall objectives and targets of the EWEC Global Strategy (see Annex 1) and the SDGs.
- Workstreams and budgets: provides an overview of the funding managed by the PMNCH Secretariat to support the Partnership's delivery of the workstreams, year by year (2018-2020). The budget is organized by both the six workstreams and the four PMNCH functions (analysis, alignment, advocacy and accountability).
- Delivering the PMNCH Business Plan: identifies the four main approaches and tools for delivering the Business Plan: partnership-centric approach, political engagement strategy, alignment with PMNCH's other core EWEC partners, and digital strategy.
- Secretariat structure, financial management and reporting: describes the structure of the PMNCH Secretariat – including how the Secretariat works closely with partners through partnership-centric Committees and Working Groups – and the structure of the IAP Secretariat. This section also briefly describes the Secretariat's hosting arrangement with the World Health Organization (WHO), its reporting requirements, and the external evaluation of PMNCH and IAP planned for 2019.

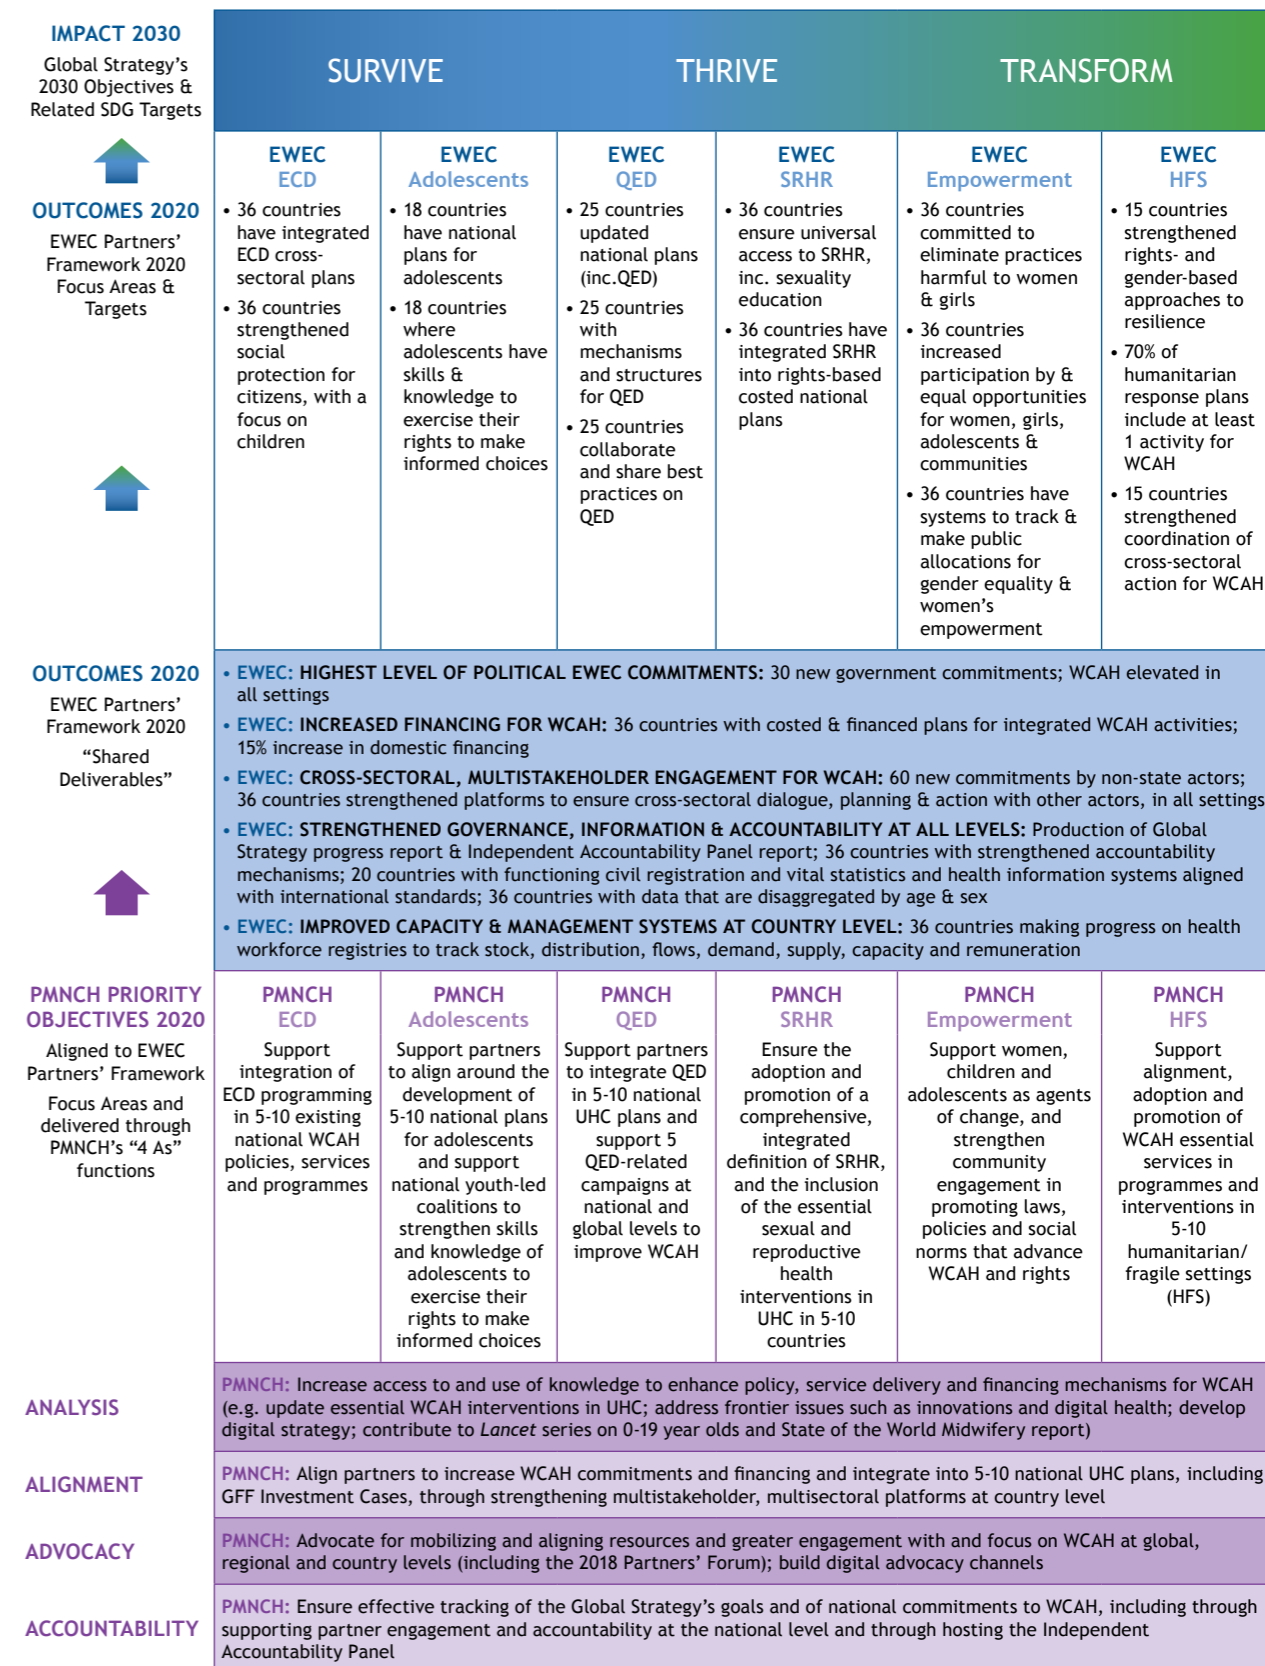

5. The six thematic workstreams of the EWEC Partner's Framework 2020 (see Annex 1) are: (i) early childhood development, (ii) adolescent health and well-being, (iii) quality, equity and dignity in UHC services to improve women's, children's and adolescents' health, (iv) sexual and reproductive health and rights in UHC, (v) empowerment of women, girls and communities, (vi) women's, children's and adolescents' health in humanitarian and fragile settings.

4. Theory of Change and Results Framework

The Theory of Change and Results Framework (Figure 4) describes:

- Priority objectives that the Partnership will deliver over the three-year period of the Business Plan and the results for which PMNCH should be held accountable during the span of this Business Plan (PMNCH attribution). These are organized into six thematic workstreams (aligning with the six focus areas of the EWEC Partners' Framework 2020) and the "four As"<sup>6</sup> functions of the Partnership described in section 2.
- EWEC Partners' Framework 2020 outcomes – the outcomes of the six thematic focus areas and the five shared deliverables – together with the Global Strategy's 2030 Objectives and related SDG target are not shaded. These 2020 mid-term goals (outcome-level) and 2030 longer-term goals (impact-level) of the Global Strategy and the SDGs are included to show how PMNCH's work will contribute directly to their achievements (PMNCH's contribution).

PMNCH's priority objectives are expressed as far as possible in quantitative and measurable terms,<sup>7</sup> thereby generating the Results Framework for the Business Plan 2018-2020, against which progress can be measured.

6. The countries referred to in Figure 4 will be determined at a later date as work progresses.

7. The countries referred to in boxes shaded in purple will be determined at a later date as work progresses.

The priority objectives, deliverables and associated activities and budgets for this three-year period were developed in consultation with a broad range of stakeholders. The detailed budgets, within the agreed budget envelope, will be developed and updated on a rolling basis throughout the annual work planning process. The annual workplan and budgets will be updated at the end of each year and presented to the Board.

The Summary Budget below describes the funds managed by the Secretariat for activities undertaken by the Partnership. Staff-costs are based on 15 core Secretariat staff, who are directly involved in facilitating and delivering Partnership activities, and an additional three positions to support the IAP. (See Section 7.1 for a brief description of the Secretariat structure and the IAP.) Additional temporary expertise will be leveraged to deliver activities as needed. Total average budgets as approved by the Executive Committee are US$ 10 million per year, set at essential level, and US$ 15 million at comprehensive level. The management of the budget will be guided by a set of principles agreed by the Board or Executive Committee, in alignment with WHO rules and regulations. (See Section 7.2 for a brief description of PMNCH financial management and reporting processes.)

The Summary Budget is presented in Table 1, described in two ways: by workstream and by PMNCH function.

Annex 2 describes in more detail the deliverables and budgets for the six PMNCH workstreams.

Each workstream in Annex 2 has two sections:

- thematic deliverables: these activities are specific to the thematic area in question and are individually budgeted; and
- cross-thematic deliverables: these activities relate to the four major PMNCH functions and drive impact across all six workstreams; for this reason, their budget is notionally divided equally between the six thematic areas.

6. Delivering the PMNCH Business Plan

The Business Plan will be delivered with the support of the following approaches and tools, described in more detail in this section:

- PMNCH's partnership-centric approach: supporting partners to deliver more together than each could do alone by implementing the PMNCH workstreams structured around context-specific Working Groups;
- Political engagement activities: mobilizing for increased commitments to WCAH and better use of existing resources;
- PMNCH strategic alignment with EWEC core partners: continuing to strengthen the Partnership's complementarity with its EWEC core partners;
- PMNCH digital strategy: connecting partners through the website and accountability portal and linking to social media and other platforms to enhance partner impact. Advances in technology, including blockchain, artificial intelligence, "internet of things", big data and advanced analytics, will enable and accelerate the Partnership's work.

These approaches were defined and prioritized largely by the PMNCH Partner-Centric Working Group, established in December 2017. The Working Group explored how to align more effectively the Partnership's operational approaches to emerging opportunities, country needs and shifting global development priorities (e.g. peace, security, climate change). It also considered the evolving EWEC architecture, including new hosting arrangements for the EWEC Secretariat and the expansion of the Global Financing Facility (GFF). Consideration was also given to the positioning of WCAH in the centre of the Global Action Plan for Healthy Lives and Well-Being for All, as well as in the broader context of UHC, the human capital agenda, and an increasing emphasis on multisectoral working.

In revisiting the organizational model, the principles that underpin PMNCH's work and organizational structure are reaffirmed and will guide the delivery of this Business Plan. These can be summarized as follows:

- PMNCH will ensure that women, children and adolescents are at the centre of everything it does;
- PMNCH's value-add is delivered through a partnership-centric way of working, focusing on those activities where more can be achieved when partners work together rather than alone;
- PMNCH will follow, where possible, a "digital first" approach, utilizing emerging technologies to provide greater value to partners;
- PMNCH does not replicate, duplicate or displace partners' activities; and
- PMNCH's organizational structure is designed to allow form to follow function: the purpose of its work, and the intended results, define its operational structures.

PMNCH has played a key role in elevating WCAH on the global political agenda and positioning it at the heart of the SDGs at the country level. This has been done through PMNCH's large number of partners and constituency networks at country level, both local and national organizations as well as country teams of global partners. These partners and networks are best positioned to support national efforts to develop sound national UHC and WCAH plans in order to achieve the Global Strategy's objectives and targets. PMNCH will support and strengthen meaningful engagement of multistakeholder actors in national policies, programmes and processes for WCAH and UHC by leveraging these networks, including through coalition-building and strengthening. This approach will better harness the contributions of diverse partners in delivering on alignment, advocacy and accountability efforts for the Global Strategy. Annex 3 describes in detail how PMNCH will work with in-country partners and constituency networks.

6.1 PMNCH's partnership-centric approach: supporting partners to implement the PMNCH workstreams structured around context-specific working groups

PMNCH Working Groups are need- or opportunity-driven, consisting of a broad pool of self-selected, voluntary partners operating at global, regional and country levels. These groups are time-bound, vary in their function and operational structures, and act as the primary implementing vehicles for the Partnership's deliverables, guaranteeing a partnership-centric approach. It is up to partners to propose the creation of such groups, participate according to their interests, define deliverables, and agree monitoring processes for the groups. Examples of current PMNCH Working Groups include:

- single events or time-bound issues (e.g. Partners' Forum Global Organizing Committee with sub-groups and National Organizing Committee with sub-groups);
- longer-term, programmatic groups managing the design and delivery of projects (e.g. Early Childhood Development Frameworks; Quality, Equity and Dignity Advocacy Working Group);
- umbrella advocacy groups linking other ad-hoc and programmatic groups around specific issues or population groups (e.g. adolescent and youth health issues).

Annex 4 lists the Committees and Working Groups operating in 2018. The Secretariat helps partners to catalyse these groups by contributing to the development of terms of reference and workplans, connecting interested partners who could contribute meaningfully to such groups, mobilizing resources for working group activities, disseminating information about working group progress and results, and promoting synergies and collaboration among different working groups.

6.2 PMNCH's political engagement activities: mobilizing for increased commitments to WCAH and better use of existing resources

The Partnership's political engagement and outreach encompass how the partners, supported by the Secretariat, gather and act on political intelligence, including mobilizing for increased EWEC commitments, alignment and support to GFF Investment Cases. Essential to this effort is PMNCH's newly established Strategy and Finance Committee, which:

- supports partners' operational efforts to identify opportunities to engage WCAH champions on thematic issues;
- steers the Working Groups on emerging new opportunities in the WCAH landscape and any shifting conditions and contexts that open new windows of political opportunity; and
- acts as an advisor to the Executive Committee about political opportunities and/or threats relating to WCAH, including identifying any risks in deviating from the overarching PMNCH strategy and or the Global Strategy's vision.

In addition, a Women Leaders Network has been established to mobilize strategic support from and actions by women leaders prepared to champion key issues pertaining to WCAH. The group will be chaired by Dr Michelle Bachelet, United Nations High Commissioner of Human Rights and former Board Chair of PMNCH. The group's mandate will cut across regions and thematic areas of the Global Strategy (EWEC 2020 themes). Advocacy roadmaps will be developed for each of the six EWEC focus areas as well as for some of the EWEC shared deliverables (e.g. mobilizing for more commitments and financing for WCAH).

6.3 Strategic alignment with EWEC core partners: continuing to strengthen PMNCH's complementarity with its EWEC core partners

The EWEC architecture (Figure 2) clearly sets out the relationship between major global institutions in support of the Global Strategy's vision, positioning country leadership at the centre of that vision. Clear and purposeful alignment of actors' roles (e.g. country technical support by the H6, financing by the GFF, partner alignment and accountability by PMNCH, political championship by the High-Level Steering Group) can accelerate progress. PMNCH is committed to close collaboration with EWEC partners as a core approach to delivering its Business Plan. This includes meaningful participation by under-represented constituencies, supported by small grant mechanisms and inclusive national multistakeholder platforms (see Annex 3).

6.4 PMNCH's digital strategy

Applying digital technology, including interactive website and digital collaboration tools, PMNCH connects partners through its website and accountability portal, using social media and other platforms to enhance partner impact.

PMNCH is currently revising and upgrading its suite of digital tools, platform and work spaces to encourage greater interactivity and collaboration between partners. The aim is to enhance the ability of partners and the Secretariat to share information and engage more effectively in delivering the Business Plan.

PMNCH is also prioritizing the development of a simplified interactive website and accountability portal in order to: drive common work through joint communication and the sharing of best practices (via communities of practice, online discussions, webinars etc.); connect partners with resources (collating tools and linking closely to an integrated accountability section); serve as a community newspaper, showcasing partners' work; and ensure strong integration with social media and other platforms that enhance collaboration, participation and exchange.

Seventy-one per cent of the world's population now have mobile telephone coverage.<sup>8</sup> Mobile telephone-based services can help reduce inequality by expanding access to information, which contributes to empowerment and social inclusion of people beyond the reach of traditional services. Digital technologies also enable collaboration across industries to create innovative, market-driven solutions to global health needs. The transformation of digital technology will be a central cross-cutting theme for PMNCH throughout the period of the Business Plan, underpinning and enabling all its workstreams.

7. PMNCH Secretariat: structure, financial management and reporting

7.1 Structure

The Partnership's Secretariat is founded on 15 core positions, providing technical leadership and administrative and communications support to the Partnership across the six EWEC Focus Areas. Additional experts will be taken on temporarily as needed. In describing the workstreams, Annex 2 differentiates between the work of the Secretariat and that of the broader Partnership. Annex 4 provides a list of existing Committees and Working Groups. During implementation of the Business Plan new groups and committees, as well as adjustments to the mandate and composition of existing groups are anticipated.

The IAP Secretariat has three additional technical and administrative positions, and reports administratively to the Partnership's Executive Director, with a principal reporting line to the IAP's co-Chairs. The IAP also reports to the UN Secretary General's EWEC High Level Steering Group.

Staff in the PMNCH Secretariat work closely with partners, through partnership-centric Committees and Working Groups, to deliver the outputs agreed in the Results Framework. The functions of the Secretariat include facilitating consultations and consensus, disseminating knowledge, producing messages and organizing meetings. The Secretariat also has a proactive role: identifying gaps and opportunities for action, identifying and encouraging partners to lead that action, and coordinating action across different partner groups and constituencies.

7.2 Financial management and reporting

The ongoing management and reporting of the Partnership's activities and funds relating to the delivery of the Business Plan are stewarded by the Secretariat in accordance with WHO rules and regulations. As part of the hosting arrangement, the Partnership is subject to the audit and financial management processes required by WHO for all its departments and hosted partnerships. The Partnership produces the following reports:

- an annual financial report;
- an annual narrative report to share progress and impact relating to the implementation of the Business Plan;
- ongoing donor reporting, subject to the specific donor agreement;
- presentations on progress at Board meetings;
- regular reporting from the Executive Director to the Executive Committee and/or the Board;
- reports from periodic independent reviews (as agreed); and
- periodic independent external evaluation of PMNCH and IAP (to commence in 2019).

The external evaluation is also expected to inform the development of next five-year PMNCH Strategic Plan (2021-2025). This creates an opportunity for the Board to reflect on the evidence and adjust the Partnership's approaches accordingly, including revising the Business Plan if necessary.

Leveraging PMNCH's in-country partners and constituency networks

PMNCH has played a key role in elevating women's, children's and adolescents' health (WCAH) on the global political agenda and positioning it at the heart of the Sustainable Development Goals. PMNCH has over 1000 member organizations across 192 countries. A large number of partners and constituency networks are at country level, both local and national organizations as well as country-based teams of global partners (e.g. UN agencies). These partners and networks are best positioned to support national priorities and efforts to develop sound national universal health coverage (UHC) and WCAH plans in order to achieve the Global Strategy's objectives and targets. PMNCH will support and strengthen meaningful engagement by multistakeholder actors in national policies, programmes and processes for WCAH and UHC by leveraging these networks, including through coalition-building and strengthening. The table below sets out PMNCH's core functions, serving as a guide to drive impact across the six thematic workstreams at the national level.

Guiding principles for choosing the countries on which the Partnership will focus include: 1) Is the country part of the Quality of Care Network? 2) Is the country part of Early Childhood Development Action Network? 3) Is it a Global Financing Facility country? 4) Does the country have commitment and leadership, evidenced by political and/or financial commitment to the Every Woman Every Child Movement and FP2020? 5) Has the country requested PMNCH engagement?

FOCUS AREAS	PMNCH ACTIVITIES
1. PROMOTE INCLUSIVE AND MEANINGFUL MULTISTAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT	Catalyse constituency-building and reinforce existing partner networks to strengthen participation of under-represented stakeholder groups (e.g. civil society, private sector and youth groups, health care professional associations, academic and research institutions) in national policy dialogue, planning processes and platforms on WCAH and UHC through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) convening and linking under-represented stakeholder groups with their respective PMNCH constituency networks;</li> <li>b) strengthening/creating coalitions to build consensus and align priorities, resources and actions leading to meaningful participation in national processes through the national multistakeholder platform;</li> <li>c) building coalitions' technical skills in advocacy, including for domestic resource mobilization, and for accountability, including monitoring and evaluation.</li> </ul>
2. STRENGTHEN AND ALIGN ACCOUNTABILITY PROCESSES	Review accountability mechanisms at national, sub-national and community levels to identify opportunities for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) promoting broader partner engagement in existing processes for tracking progress towards the Global Strategy;</li> <li>b) supporting efforts to streamline and unify accountability processes, including through joint monitoring of agreed milestones and results, harmonizing data gathering and management, reporting, review and oversight processes;</li> <li>c) linking social accountability initiatives and citizens' hearings with national and sub-national WCAH accountability frameworks.</li> </ul>
3. STRENGTHEN MULTISECTORAL LINKAGES	Facilitate dialogue between health sector WCAH partners and those in health-allied sectors by: identifying specific priorities and opportunities for collaborative action, and strengthening existing mechanisms for multisectoral coordination and exchange among partner networks and constituencies.
4. SUPPORT JOINT ADVOCACY	Foster a concerted approach to advocacy for WCAH: Strengthen and sustain commitments to WCAH priorities by leveraging PMNCH's global WCAH advocacy strategy and its network of partners to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) support consultations among in-country partners to identify key WCAH priorities for joint advocacy and build local advocacy capacities; and</li> <li>b) amplify country-identified WCAH priority advocacy messages through broader advocacy efforts in regional and global forums.</li> </ul>
5. FACILITATE LEARNING AND EXCHANGE ACROSS COUNTRIES	Support and facilitate learning through regular consultations among country representatives, including between Global Financing Facility-supported and other countries, to share experiences of strengthening coalitions, country-led multistakeholder platforms, accountability processes and joint advocacy efforts and by synthesizing and disseminating evidence and best practices on multistakeholder action for improved WCAH outcomes.

PMNCH working groups and committees

Over 30 multipartner working groups in 2018 identified PMNCH as their organizing platform. Some of them are short-term in nature, while others are ongoing. These groups fall into various categories, being: (i) thematically focused; (ii) function-related; or (iii) aimed at governing PMNCH and its operations. They engage many partner organizations around common objectives, within the context of the overall direction of the Business Plan. The table below provides information about the groups as at October 2018. Some partner-led groups in which PMNCH participates are hosted by other organizations; these are shown in italics.
